

Global Conclave on Sustainable Development (GCSD)

Sustainable Development is the need of the hour, wherein the skills and expertise from different ends have to be congregated to address the future requirements and unforeseen challenges. NFED intends to conduct a conclave on a global perspective focusing on the indispensable aspects, wherein growth is possible and guaranteed at all spheres to bring in a sustainable development. Keeping this noble view, the conclave is named as 'Global Conclave on Sustainable Development (GCSD)'. GCSD encompasses the holistic facets and significant dimensions that account for upbringing and promulgating the overall sustainable development. The purpose of this global conclave is to bring experts from diverse fields in a common platform to have experiential learning through their real-time knowledge sharing. GCSD further extends its professional stint by recognizing the talents of potential individuals across India and Abroad for their astounding contribution in bringing the societal transformation and sustainable growth.

NFED's Integrated National Awards (INA)

NFED is a socialistic organization, which is predominantly into creating entrepreneurship cult across the nation through orientation, awareness, research and development activities, entrepreneurship & career development programmes since 2003.

NFED has always been a secular pedestal for encouraging the talents through its social sensational awards across the nation and globe since 2010, and has organized and conducted 37 national award ceremonies. It identifies talents hailing from various domains, academia to industry, viz., Education (School Teachers, Educators & Demonstrators), Education & Research (Faculties - Institutions/Universities, Researchers & Scientists), Entrepreneurs (Business & Social Entrepreneurs), Trainers, Professionals, Social Activists, Freelancers, etc.

NFED has envisaged into conducting the 38th National Award ceremony as its first Integrated National Awards (INA). The intent of instituting INA in its Global Conclave is to bring NFED's national awards under one gamut thereby creating a knowledge sharing platform through its global conclave and recognizing multifaceted talents.
